

ON-LINE RACHEL'S LAW/MIRANDA TRAINING
available to take within the SPC semester:

Rachel's Law is an overview of the State of Florida requirements and procedures that a law enforcement agency have in place when retaining confidential informants.

Miranda is an overview of U.S. Supreme Court cases that provide that prior to interrogation, a person in custody be advised of certain specified legal rights.

Individuals or agencies may register their officers between May 18 and July 23, 2010. The semester ends July 23, 2010.

Once registered, you will receive an e-mail confirmation and password to access training. You must have e-mail and internet access to take this course.

The registration fee is $30.00 per person. The training hours are approved by Florida Criminal Justice Standards & Training Commission for two hours of mandatory retraining hours. For officers taking this course outside of the State of Florida, please check with your state for retraining hour requirements. There is an assessment test at the end of this course. To receive a certificate of completion, you must successfully complete the exam. Once you successfully complete the exam you will be able to print the certificate of completion. You will be given two opportunities to pass the test, after that the course will be closed and you will have to re-register to take the class again.

Only Fax registrations to (727) 341-4547. No phone registrations. Once you receive a confirmation there are no refunds.
