Fee: Trust Funded Training ($78.21) Pre-registration Required

This purpose of this 8-hour advanced training course is to expose participants to high profile/high risk inmates within the jail and prisons, by examining recent high profile cases where there was a great deal of media exposure, threat to the inmate, or risk by the inmate towards transportation officers and the public. Officers participating will be utilizing their experience and investigative skills as well as the ability to effectively communicate and participate in a group learning environment.

Presenter Warden Rhodene Mathis has worked for the Florida Department of Corrections approximately 30 years. She began her career as a CO (Correctional Officer) in 1979 and moved thru the ranks over that time to Sergeant, Lieutenant, Captain, Major, Colonel and Assistant Wardens at Lowell CI. In 2008 she became the Warden at Hillsborough CI, overseeing the safe operation, security and management of that facility.
