STRESS MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES

November 16-20, 2009 8 am – 5 pm

Allstate Center 210

Fee: $458.20 Pre-registration Required

This 40-hour salary incentive course is designed to enhance the law enforcement, correctional and correctional probation officer's ability to deal with stressful situations that are inherent in the criminal justice profession. A general awareness of the causes and types of stress, as well as ways to resolve stress, should lead to more effective job performance. This course emphasizes application of stress resolution techniques, both personal and organizational including eight (8) hours of physical fitness training.

Participants are required to bring to class (bring on the first day along with change of clothes):
Workout attire [shorts, shirt, tennis shoes], two towels and a calculator.

Presenter Jeff Helms, has operated Diversified Training Services since 1998, and is a SEPSI adjunct instructor. He received his Bachelor of Science and Masters of Public Administration degrees from University of Central Florida. His work concentrates on the development and facilitation of advanced/specialized training programs for both law enforcement and corrections.
