Continue your education by earning your bachelor's or graduate degree — without leaving Pinellas County!

If you are ready to graduate from SPC with your A.A. or A.S. degree, or if you have your freshman and sophomore years completed, you may continue your education with one of our premier partner institutions, and chose from more than 90 degree programs at the University Partnership Center.

Earn your bachelor's or graduate degree from one of 16 fully accredited colleges and universities by taking courses that lead to a degree from one of the partner universities on various SPC sites.

Classes are offered via face-to-face instruction, two-way interactive, or the Web with mentors.

The University Partnership Center began in 1999, offering access to higher education. It continues to expand its offerings to meet the needs of Pinellas County residents. The partner institutions are:

- Barry University
- Case Western Reserve University
- Cleveland State University
- Eckerd College
- Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University
- Florida A&M University
- Florida Gulf Coast University
- Florida Institute of Technology
- Florida International University
- Florida State University
- Indiana University
- Saint Leo University
- St. Petersburg College
- University of Central Florida
- University of Florida
- University of South Florida

Please note: To enroll in the University Partnership Center, you must meet the requirements for and be accepted into the university of your choice and pay that institution's tuition.

UPC registration is completed through the partnering institutions. For detailed information on degrees offered, admission requirements, curriculum and much more, please visit our Web site at www.upcspc.com or call 727-394-6200. Once admitted to a program and taking classes, students are required by the UPC to obtain a computer login number and UPC photo ID.
