Do you need to sign up for CLAST?

The state of Florida requires all students seeking an Associate in Arts degree or admission to upper division status at a state university to meet the requirements of the College-Level Academic Skills Test (CLAST).

If you have earned at least 18 credit hours, including English and Math courses, you are eligible to take the exam.

Before signing up, check with Advising or Testing to see if you might be exempt from any portions of the test. Register for CLAST using MySPC. If you have exempted any section of CLAST, you must register onsite (SPC Testing Office).
