Public Policy and Administration Program

Introduction of Public Policy and Administration Advisory Committee Members.

The advisory committee discussed their perspectives on the Capstone Panel Discussion webinar which occurred prior to the advisory committee meeting.

Professor Kronschnabl provided updates on:
Public Policy City of Largo Management Associate position,
Seminole Business Associate Training program,
COVID virus pandemic requiring changeover to online and Zoom classes,
Our new Urban and Regional Planning Professor Lorraine Duffy Suarez, and Public Policy and Administration graduate Sane Haidara's non-profit school nutrition program in Timbuktu, Africa.

Additionally, the Public Policy & Administration Leader Newsletter will be released soon.

Open discussion from all in attendance included but not limited to:

Civics High School outreach and student participation

Enhancement of our digital presence for our program marketing
Recording of our Advisory Board meetings
Have representation at Pinellas County Schools – Great American Teach In V.I.P Youth program for community participation and collaboration
Development of long and short term goals for Advisory Board

Numerous comments and compliments from Advisory Board members demonstrating support, direction and appreciation to SPC's Public Policy and Administrations staff, faculty, students and college as a whole.

Professor Kronschnabl thanked the committee for their service to our students and program.

The meeting concluded at 7:50 p.m.
